

TESTING OFFICE.

Cumberland Telephone Co. Makes Earlington Chief Point in Western Kentucky.

WILL USE TEN OR MORE OPERATORS.

The Cumberland Telephone Co. has completed all arrangements to make Earlington the chief testing point in Western Kentucky and it will be the largest in the State outside of Louisville. Manager Montague, the hustling manager of the company at this place, has been working for this so a number of months, and although it looked doubtful in the beginning, he kept hammering away with persistency until he accomplished his purpose. He has already received a large long distance testing board and a new local board, both of which will be installed in a short time. A car load of copper wire has also been received and all other necessary material for making the change. There will be ten or more operators employed. The chief operator will be a lady from Nashville and the others will be selected from Earlington if possible. This change will greatly facilitate business in Earlington and there will be no more tiresome waits for the other party and that old phrase, "the line is busy," will be a thing of the past.

POLICEMAN PICKS UP HEAD;

FINDS IT THAT OF HIS SON.

Sergeant Reilly, of South Chicago Thus Learns of Young Man's Death.

As Patrick Reilly, sergeant at the South Chicago police station, lifted the head of a man who had been killed by a Lake Shore train near One Hundred and First street one evening last week he found it was that of his son, Patrick J. Reilly, 22 years old. The policeman had gone to the railroad yards in answer to a report that a man had been killed there.

WASHINGTON NEGRO HANGED.

John Burley, Whom Roosevelt Refused to Pardon, Dies on Scaffold.

Washington, D. C. Aug. 26.—John Burley, a negro 40 years of age, was hanged at the district jail here today for an attack on a 4-year-old negro girl, committed in July, 1903. It was the first time the death penalty had been inflicted in the District of Columbia for this offense. An appeal to President Roosevelt recently for clemency resulted not only in a refusal but in a scathing arraignment of the prisoner and the crime for which he was convicted.

IMPORTANT QUESTION

To Come Before the Conference of the
M. E. Church in Session at Lexington.

A proposition is now under consideration by the two branches of the Methodist Episcopal church in Kentucky to join forces in educational work in the State just as the Northern and Southern Presbyterian churches have already done.

The project will come up in definite form at the session of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Church South, which is now being held in Lexington. The actual proposition now under consideration is to center
the support of the entire denomination in Kentucky upon the Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester, Ky., and that for the purpose of strengthening the institution the money left the Methodist church by Mrs. Fannie H. Speed, amounting to about $250,000 in all, be added to the endowment of that college. It now seems probable that this will be agreed upon.

It will be remembered that Mrs. Fanny Speed divided her estate between her relatives and the Board of Education of the Methodist church, North. The will was contested by the Henn
family but was sustained by all the courts and one-half of that estate or about $250,000 is now in the hands of the Board of Education.

It was the original intention of that board to establish a university in Louisville and the lot at Brook and Breckinridge was considered as a site. After mature deliberation, however, it was considered unsafe to divide the strength of the church in Kentucky by trying to keep up one college in Winchester and one in Louisville. It was point ed out that the Speed money can only be used as an endowment and that while the income can be spent annually in increasing the usefulness of the Winchester College yet if the time should come that it would be thought wise to establish a Methodist college in Louisville the money
could be withdrawn.

Joint committees from the two branches of the church in the State have held several conferences and there is a general
feeling of confidence in the success of the project. The Rev.
Amos Boreing is chairman of the joint committees and the Rev.
U. V. W. Darlington is secretary. The text of the agreement reached by these committees is
as follows:

"First.—That the two churches shall unite upon one college of high grade for the entire State of Kentucky: that college shall be the Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester; that it shall be operated and controlled by a Board of Education of not less than twelve nor more than twenty-four members of equal number from each church, and half laymen and half preachers, with the bishops holding the conference of the two churches
ex-officio members.

"Second.—That there shall be also under the care and oversight of the board a system of high grade academies that shall serve as feeder to the college and work in harmony with its course of study as well as serve the needs of the respective local fields. For the present these academies shall be: Union College, Barbourville; K. W. C.
Academy, Campton; one in the Big Sandy valley, and one in the western part of the State, hereafter to be located.

"To become effective this report must be adopted by both conferences."

Things are Shaped at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 29.—Practically everything is in readiness

for the coming of the Kentucky

State Guard to the exposition.

Harry G. Tandy, quartermaster

general and acting commissary

general, was here today to arrange for rations for all the troops. The contracts he is making call for accommodations for 570 men for nine days each three times during the month of September, a total of 1,610 men.

Mr. Tandy is well pleased with the site selected for the Kentucky soldier boys. He says he will bring over a detail of men

on next Friday for the purpose of getting the site in readiness to pitch tents, etc.

This will be the first time the Kentucky militia have been paid

for attending a camp of instruction. All are to have expenses paid and receive a daily salary amounting to $1.50 for privates,

$1.75 for noncommissioned offi-

The government has appropri-supplement this with $14,000.

Mr. Tandy is experiencing some trouble in finding suitable horses

for the officers. The sixteen head needed may be brought from Kentucky.

AMERICAN BANKERS

Coming to Their Senses at Last Says the Wall Street Journal.

The American Bankers' Association, at its forthcoming convention in this city, is to vote upon an amendment to the constitution proposed by the State
Bankers' Association of New York.

This amendment provides for a standing protective committee
composed of three persons,
whose names are not to be made public, and who shall control all actions looking to the detection and punishment of persons attempting to cause or actually causing loss, to any member of the association by loans obtained upon false statements of financial condition.

The banks, which are themselves under a system of public publicity established for the protection of the public, have instituted a system of private publicity for the protection of themselves against dishonest borrowers. This system consists of obliging borrowers to make detailed statements of their business before they can obtain credit. It is now proposed to take effective measures to publish dishonesty in making these statements.

Full and truthful financial statements are therefore the basis of sound credit.
In like manner full and truthful statements of financial condition must be the basis of sound investment.

The borrower who refuses to make a statement is not entitled to credit. The corporation which refuses such a statement
is not entitled to confidence.

If either one or the other makes a false statement, it is guilty of an attempt to obtain money on false pretenses.

ASSESSMENTS NOT TO BE.

Warning Against Campaign Levies on Government Employees Issued to Bureau Heads.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 26.—
In view of the approaching election, the civil service commission today addressed a letter to the heads of all government departments and bureaus calling their attention to violations of civil service law which have occurred in the past in connection with political campaigns and enclosing a circular containing a warning against the damage or payment of political assessments and partisan activity of officeholders.

The Arrival of W. F. Sheridan, Formerly

W. F. Sheridan, formerly train master for the L. & N. at this place, arrived on 52 Wednesday, and a number of his friends and admirers gave a little blowout
and barbecue at Lakeside Park in honor of his visit. Needless to say the affair was an entire success and greatly enjoyed by all participants. Mr. Sheridan will remain in Earlington only a short time, and will go from here to Pofiro Diaz, Mexico, where he holds the position as master of the transportation of the International Mexican R. R.

classed as permanent emigrants.

The Earlinton ball team played the Nortonville nine on the latter's ground Sunday. The game was a pretty one, both sides putting up the real article. John Robinson twirled 'em for Earlinton and Leonard Goodloe took everything that passed the bat. This battery was strongly supported and the Nortonville boys were defeated, as are all who buck against our home team.

Good Spirits.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is from the liver—the liver—the first spirit ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't drink spirits and have a bad liver at the same time.

Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and full of energy for your pursuits.

You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all liver tonics. It is the liver tonic and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty years.

It is a tonic for the liver and a regular bottle. 50¢. At all druggists.

Notice to Candidates.

If you desire the votes of the people of Earlinton, make your announcement in THE BEE. We will make your announcement and carry it until the coming election for the moderate sum of $5.00.

Did You Know

Blue G. Bard.

That the man who smiles the sweetest,
Is the biggest hypocrite?

That the man who brags the loudest,
Has the least amount of grit?

That the man who has most money
Is closer than the rest?

And those who wear the newest Clothes,
Are not always the best?

That the flower that smells the sweetest,
Will be the first to fade?

And the boy who runs the swiftest,
Will be the first to jad?

That the bright and lovely evening,
Always has the darkest dawn?

And men who buy the largest yard,
Must know the biggest lawn?

That the hen that lays the largest egg,
Is not the first to set?

And the things we always hanker
for,

Are the things we never get?

That soup that looks the clearest,
Is the first to show the flies?

And the fellow who sells the goods,

Says "It pays to advertise?"

"Alphonse and Gaston," that mirthful musical farce which has kept the American people on the edge of their seats with the greatest of expectation for its production, will have its premiere at the Theatre Royal of St. Louis, 6th and Alphonse and Gaston" as every newspaper reader from Eastport, Maine, to the Golden Gate at California, knows the two mythical Frenchmen whose ultra politeness places them in the most absurd and ridiculous positions imaginable. The characters of Alphonse and Gaston are assumed by those favorite and well known comedians, Mr. Jack Collins and Mr. Henry Clive, assisted by such artists as Mr. James Gibson as Happy Hooligan and Miss Florence Nash as Mother Katzenjammer, and others. The musical numbers as sung by a competent chorus of pretty girls are chosen from the most popular numbers of the day. "Alphonse and Gaston" is a stupendous production of stage, scenic effects and costume, abounding with hilarious situations, by-words and witticisms that will become the popular fad of the day.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in case of accident and slight injuries and ailments. A great liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite is not a household necessity is Ointment of Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it relieves the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents the danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 1, 1904.

THE State administration has discovered a new source of revenue for our depleted public funds. Attorney General Hays says life insurance policies are taxable under the constitution and laws of Kentucky and the question is to be tested in the courts. If anything can be gotten out of this new application of the excise laws for the betterment of our poor public schools we are for taxing life policies without a moments hesitation. A solution of all other questions will be found with greater ease when we shall have put our public school system upon an equality with the best system to be found in other States. Kentucky has a long road to travel before she can toe the mark with some of her sister States on the school question. Let's get right.

THE Czar of all the Russias has abolished the whipping post and the Russian newspapers rejoiced that their country is no longer to be stigmatized as the land of the Knout. The press in general is congratulating Russia upon this great reform, yet there are places in our own boasted "land of the free" where the whipping post is in vogue, where it has in some instances been but recently revived. It is looked upon by many as a revival of a relic of barbarism but it has its advocates who would put it into general service in this country. The city of Lexington, Ky., the seat of our State College and an important center of enlightenment, has the whipping post for boys and it is put to vigorous use. A Western Kentucky paper also as frequently advocated the revival of the whipping post. In Lexington there is a sentiment in favor of establishing a Juvenile Court to replace corporal punishment, a system that has found favor and success in Denver and other cities, but this sentiment is yet comparatively insignificant. THE BEE believes that as new and advanced methods in the school room have supplanted the hickory and the ruler so ought humane and persuasive methods to prevail in the administration of public affairs and in the punishment of law-breakers, especially juveniles and those who are not confirmed criminals.

A new putty knife invented by a Philadelphia has a reservoir and force feed, by means of which the putty is supplied as it is needed for use.

The United States government pays railway companies two or three times as much for carrying the mails as is charged express companies for similar services.

Imports of cheese into the United States now exceed the exports. During the ten months ending April 30 imports amounted to $2,790,600, exports to $1,992,501.

In Praise of Chamberlain's "Colic & Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy."

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's 'Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy,'" says Mr. John Hammett of Eagle Pass, Tex. "I suffered from a weak heart, trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a chemist here, recommended me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you for your kind and my hearty for giving this great remedy in the hands of mankind."

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK.

Your fall campaign for business is all mapped out and planned almost to the last detail. You have decided what new lines you will take up, what old ones shall be pushed; what means you will employ to get the interest of those who should patronize you. Your methods and systems have been gone over and strengthened and improved where possible. You feel that you will deserve to succeed, because of the thoroughness of your preparation, and that if you do not increase your business and profits the blame cannot be laid to lack of forethought.

Yet, there is one thing lacking. If you do not get the above facts before the people your business will run short. There is no plan of advertising that equals a space in THE BEE.

"Do It Today." The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'till to-morrow what you can do to-day!" That is the terse advice that will give you a decided enough of personalizing cold with which you have been strung for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy—say—German Syrup. Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will bring you out of the grip of cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. Few other home remedies are as effective as this. It has surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless falling trouble. Next trial bottles, 25¢; regular size, 75¢. At all druggists.

The Institute of German Physicians issues a warning to young men against taking up the study of medicine, there being at present a surplus of doctors.

Considerable ventilation is capable of taking place and quite a large exchange of fresh for bad air is effected through the walls of buildings.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT

EDITED BY MISS MINNIE BOURLAND.

The school at St. Charles opened Monday, Aug. 22, with John D. Cart as principal.

There were 118 enrolled the first week. The school will probably reach an enrollment of 200.

Mr. Cart is assisted by Mr. Taylor Craynor and Miss Hattie Scott. They have also started a new library and in one week's time have secured nine volumes.

The school building having been treated to some much needed repairs before the opening of the term and with its able management we expect nothing but success.

VEAZEY, Ky., Aug. 22, 1904.
THE BEE,
EARLINGTON, Ky.,
Dear editor:

I have received two or three copies of your paper, with which I am well pleased and for which I thank you very much. You may send it to me regularly.

We, as a band of Hopkins county teachers, thank you very much for the interest you are taking in us and in the cause of education and especially for the space in your paper you have so liberally allotted to us.

I received the picture of your school building yesterday, and take pleasure in saying that your request shall be complied with, as I know of nothing that is a better incentive and that will create more enthusiasm than the plan suggested by you.

I am teaching at Buntins district, No. 77—begin the 22nd day of August, 1904, and everything looks favorable for success.

Yours truly,

A. L. VEAZEY.

School Fund.

The school fund has been officially announced as $2.95 per pupil for the present year. This is larger than last year, but less in proportion to the work required. Last year it was $2.60 for five months school. Now it is $2.95 and a term of six months is required. This per capita will be slightly lowered by taking enough from the larger districts to make up for those having less than forty-five pupils. The per capita would have been larger this year had it not been for a deficit of $171,000 which had to be made up.

The prospects for a year of successful work at the Uniontown graded school this year are indeed flattering. The members of the school board are doing all in their power toward making the first year a success and with an able and experienced superintendent in charge, such as Prof. White bears every evidence of being, Uniontown's graded school should establish a record this year.

Now that school days are near, the attention of parents is called to the truancy law for cities of the first, second, third and fourth classes as passed by the last legislature. It is a wise provision and a law that should be strictly enforced. The act provides that the parents in the cities of the class designated must see to it that their children between the ages of seven and fourteen years must attend either the public or some private school for a full term of six months. The only excuse which may be offered for the child not attending the common school or the accredited private schools is that the child is either physically or mentally unfit to leave its home.

Gov. Beckham has issued a proclamation fixing Sept. 1 as the date on and after which all public schools in the state not having existing contracts for books shall use the list of books adopted for five years by the state school book commission.

Among the many new books recently installed in the Earlington Free Library the complete set of Abbott's Histories should attract young lovers of history. In style they are simple enough for fourth grade children, yet most delightful reading.

In the old educational systems, teaching pupils every period of the world's history except their own did much in making history a far away and impractical subject. In recent years, however, the idea of making some use of current events and the newspaper in school and later of having newspapers specially prepared for use in school has been steadily growing. In colleges and universities periodicals like the Outlook, Literary Digest, Review of Reviews, Current Literature and Public Opinion are used with much pleasure and profit. For elementary schools "The Little Chronicle" is considered by most competent judges to be the best adapted. It has been adopted by many of the young people's reading circles and is used as supplementary reading in the most progressive schools in our country.

Mr. Dennis Teague has begun his school in the Daniel Boone district. He reports some advanced pupils who will later take part in the contests.

LETTER FROM GEN'L BRIGGS.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND BRIGADE,
KENTUCKY DIVISION OF
UNITED CONFEDERATE VETERANS,
Russellville, Ky.,

August 27, 1904.

It is with great pleasure that the Commanding General announces to the camps composing the Second Brigade, Kentucky Division of United Confederate Veterans, that he has accepted for the Brigade the kind invitation to hold its next annual reunion at Earlington, Ky., on the 21st and 22d of September next.

The good people of Earlington will make ample provision for the free entertainment of all Confederate Veterans who attend, and the railroads will give low rates, which will be announced hereafter. An enjoyable time is in store for us, and so it is hoped that the attendance on this occasion will be the largest possible.

The Commander of each camp will ascertain and report at once to Captain Alonso Tinder, Commander of the Madisonville Camp No. 528, U. C. V.'s, how many men will be present from his camp, so that ample provision may be made for all who attend.

All the men who have uniforms are requested to wear them at this reunion. Each camp will take with it all its flags.

Each camp will also select one comrade to make a ten minutes' talk, which may be historical, pathetic, witty, humorous, or anything appropriate he may wish to say.

Comrades, nearly forty years have passed since the war ended. The youngest veteran is now approaching the age of three score years, while the majority of us have long since passed that mark. The number is decreasing more and more rapidly every year, and most of the survivors have in this life but few more years left to get together on their comrade's shoulders, talk over old times, and fancy themselves.

Each camp will also select one comrade to lend a helping hand to Veterans in needly circumstances, that it may be possible for them also to attend, for the sake of their devotion to the principles for which so many gallant souls poured out their life's blood and for which they and all of us fought so long and so well—principles that will never die as long as the love of liberty lasts.

Every school library ought to contain several sets of school readers, to supplement those in the hands of the pupils. When scholars have read through their own books, the new ones will excite a fresh interest. Besides, in all except the lowest classes, an intelligent child will extract most of the information worth anything, from an ordinary class-book, in less than sixty days. "No on thing," says Horace Mann, "will contribute more to intelligent reading than a well-selected school library."—Sweet's Methods of Teaching.

Wit and Humor in the Schoolroom. The little girl was writing a composition on the rabbit, and, never having seen a creature of any sort, inquired of her teacher whether the rabbit had a tail.

"Yes, a small one. None to speak of," answered the teacher.

This is the way the little girl introduced the matter in her composition:

A POOR PLACE FOR CROOKS

The World's Fair Grounds Practically Free From Crime.

The Crooks, Both Domestic and Foreign, Give Inside Police Bat Little to Do.

St. Louis, Aug. 31.—The World's fair grounds, the population of which, according to the latest figures, averages more than 132,000 a day, is from a criminal standpoint freer from crime than any territory of like size and population in the world.

According to the records of the St. Louis police department, there has not been a murder or a case of manslaughter and only two cases that come under the code as felony, and one of these has already been dismissed by the court.

Less than $2,000 worth of stolen property has been reported and only five arrests have been made of pickpockets, and less than fifteen cases of drunkenness can be found on the records. The cases of disorderly conduct have been very few in number, and the most serious crime committed is the loss of a fence post.

"We are, of course, very proud of this record," said Capt. Young, "and we believe that we made a record for the handling of crowds."

"It is astonishing to us," said Lieut. Walsh, in charge of the detective force on duty at the exposition, "the lack of general lawlessness here. The police have been able to find no crooks here, and the record of the police force is a credit to the city of St. Louis."

The record of stolen property reported bears out the claim of the department that the bad men of the country do not care to visit the exposition. The statement among crooks of Chief Detective Walsh is that the police have been able to find no crooks here, and the gateways of the exposition entirely clean in this respect, and the visitor can make his way without disagreeable interruption from the street cars to the entrance gates.

LEPROSY IN LA SALLE, ILL.

Patient is a Native of Poland and in Thirty-Five Years Old.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 30.—A case of supposed leprosy was reported to this state board of health, Monday, from LaSalle, by an attending physician. The patient is a native of Poland, 35 years old, who says that he suffers from a disease from which he now suffers made its appearance 15 months ago. Dr. E. B. Eggers, secretary to the state board of health, told the physician that the disease was not leprosy, but a disease of the skin.

The physician, Dr. J. C. Powell, who reported the case, said that the disease is not leprosy, but a disease of the skin.

He told them more than he had told any other, also, about the matter.

He said that he had been advised to them that the daily cost of operating the plant is $1,000, and that, including the repayment of the government loan at the rate of $500,000 every two weeks, the diurnal cost is $65,000.

AUTOMOBILE KILLS TWO

Boys Through Fence at St. Louis Fair Grounds With Fatal Results.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 29.—Blinded by the dust of his opponent's machine, Barney Oldfield, professional racing chauffeur, drove his automobile at a 60-mile-an-hour rate through the fence at the Fair Grounds, killing two boys, and injuring another, and sustaining slight injuries himself. His machine was demolished. Nathan Montgomery, who was mortally hurt, died at the city hospital.

John Scott, a watchman employed at the Fair grounds with Nathan Montgomery, a negro laborer, was standing at the three-eighths pole, at the turn of the track, when Oldfield approached, running at the rate of a mile a minute. With his eyes full of dust and his progress hampered by his opponent, A. W. Scott, Oldfield was unable to go to the outer edge of the track. He ran into and through the fence and, looking Scott and Montgomery down, ran 15 feet further to a maple tree, where the machine was demolished by the collision.

COMMERCE SHOWS LARGE INCREASE

Philippines Commerce Indicate Gain

In a Year of More Than a Million Dollars.

EXPORTS SHOW A FALLING OFF

IN THE ITEMS OF COPRA AND SUGAR.

The United States Leads in the Amount of Merchandise Sent to the Islands Except For Those Countries From Which Rice is Obtained—Imports Mainly Food and Animals.

Washington, Aug. 29.—During nine months ended March last, the total commerce of the Philippines Islands shows an increased value of more than a million dollars at the bureau of insular affairs. The statement says that the value of merchandise imported was $15,970,000, an increase of $1,000,000 over the previous nine months.

Except for those countries from which rice is obtained, the statement says that for the first time since American occupation, the United States leads in the amount of merchandise sent to the islands, and that the outgoing trades show a decline in the value of shipments to the United States, more than $700,000 of loss being credited to sugar exports and $600,000 to hemp. More than one-half of the imports consisted of food and animals, while the exports were chiefly non-foods, amounting to $16,000,000 in round numbers. The figures on the carrying trade show an increase in volume of business done under the American flag, the amount carried to the islands from March 1 to May 30, $5,000,000, and iron and steel imports rose to $1,914,511, a gain of half a million, the United Kingdom supplying practically all of the $213,179 worth of sheets and plates imported.

Leaf tobacco exported in 1904 amounted to $75,977, a substantial gain.

Spain and Austria being the principal countries of export, their value increased to $172,962, Hong Kong and British East Indies buying more than one-half the amount, the Americans made.

The arrivals shown by the immigration bureau shows one-fifth of the whole number of immigrants, it is stated, could neither read nor write, 95 per cent of the illiterates being Chinese.

Automobiles, which are the chief imports, increased to $1,750,000.

Impressions of cotton goods dropped from $1,500,000 to $1,000,000.

Iron and steel imports rose to $1,914,511, a gain of half a million, the United Kingdom supplying practically all of the $213,179 worth of sheets and plates imported.

News of the Mines.

Exportation of American Coal.

Mr. Henry S. Fleming, Secretary of the Bituminous Coal Trade Association, in an article on "Commercial Divisions of the Competitive Coal Markets," published in the Mining Magazine, of New York, presents the following information relative to the exportation of American coal:

In 1902 our total exports of anthracite coal were 1,570,490 tons, of which 1,502,372 tons were shipped into Canada. The total exports in 1903 were 1,388,653 tons, of which 1,369,376 tons were sent to Canada. Our total exports of bituminous coal in 1902 were 5,400,694 tons, of which 3,355,820 tons went into Canada (3,250,000 tons all-rail over the border between Ohio and Vermont); 450,000 tons to Europe; 200,000 tons to South America and 661,000 tons to Mexico and Central America. In 1903 our total exports of bituminous coal were 5,210,000 tons, of which 3,692,000 went to Canada, most of it by the northern border; about 70,000 tons to Europe, 110,000 tons to South America and 655,000 tons to Mexico and Central America.

Alluding to the fact that Great Britain is practically our only competitor among the foreign countries to which we export coal, Mr. Fleming says:

The coal-fields of Great Britain are already very fully developed and work an average of from 230 to 250 days per year, while the regions within reach of tidewater here have a great undeveloped territory, and do not work an average of over 200 days per year. An increase of thirty days' working time would produce nearly 10,000,000 tons available for export.

The Coal and Oil Fields of Southwestern Alaska.

Mr. R. W. Stone reached Homer, on Kachemak Bay, on the west side of Kenai Peninsula, early in June, and spent about three weeks in careful examination of the Kachemak coal fields. This coal area was the scene of the earliest mining operations in Alaska. It was discovered by the Russians about the middle of the last century and since that time has been spasmodically exploited, though its aggregate output has been small. It is hoped that a careful survey of this field may reveal the facts that some of the seams are of sufficient size and that the coal is of the requisite quality to furnish a fuel supply for this part of Alaska. Toward the end of June Mr. Stone joined Dr. G. C. Martin, who had been making a reexamination of the Enochkin oilfield, on the west side of the Cook Inlet. Together they went southward to make a careful examination of the mineral resources of Alaska Peninsula, including the oil fields of Cold Bay and the coal deposits of Herendeen Bay.

WORK BEING RUSHED

By Webster County Coal Company at Providence, Ky.

The shaft of the Webster County Coal Company was completed some time ago and a crew of men are now at work hurriedly driving entries. About one thousand bushels of coal is being taken from the new mine daily, in this process.

A big pond has been dug out near the shaft and this now contains twenty feet of water. They estimate that they will have an abundant water supply from this artificial reservoir.

Arrangements are also hurriedly being made for the machinery to be installed. The workmen expect to have the tipple constructed and boilers, engines and hoisting machinery in place by the middle of September. The machinery to be installed is all new and of the latest manufacture.

Work of grading a roadbed from the L. & N. railroad to the mines has also commenced and a number of teams and men are employed doing this work. The switch from the railroad to the mines is a distance of one mile and one thousand feet.

The Crittenden Coal and Coke company of Marion, Ky., have lately made some very large contracts for the future delivery of their high grade coal. The output at their mine has been gradually increasing in tonnage until at the present time it is most satisfactory to the management.

The North Jellico Coal Company is building a mile of mining railroad and developing new mines at Wilton, Ky.

The National Coal and Coke Co., who are operating mines at Uniontown, Ky., has transferred its main office from Indianapolis, Ind., to that city.

The work of improvement at the National Coal and Coke Co.'s mine at Uniontown is nearing completion. After the work about the shaft is completed a track from the mine to the Ohio river will be built.

Mr. Frank S. Mott, who for two years has been electrician at the Reinecke coal mines has severed his connection with that company. He is now engaged in arranging the electrical machinery for the Royal Coal Co., at their mine near Madisonville. When this work is completed he will go on the road selling electrical supplies for a Chicago firm.

Joseph Leiter returned to Chicago from his coal mines at Ziegler, Ill., a few days ago and declared he had won a complete victory over the striking union miners there.

"It has been a hard fight," he said, "but so far as we are concerned there has been no strike. I was determined I would not permit my employees or the labor unions to dictate to me how I should run my plant."

"The building of the stockade took a deal of my time. I intended putting it up, anyhow, and it came in mighty handy. The mines are running in good shape now, and I don't believe with the precautions we have taken the strikers would dare molest my men. Many of the leading strikers have found employment elsewhere, and I think they have given up the fight."

"I now have the works in full operation again. More than 200 men are in the mines and 150 on the ground, engaged in construction work. The output is between 200 and 300 tons a day. This is equal to the output prior to the strike, and will be increased."

"The town of Ziegler now has 170 houses. A schoolhouse and a hospital are being built inside the walls."

Violence has put in appearance with vigor in Connecticut with the strike of the United Mine Workers of America in the Birmingham field. Early last Thursday morning at Dolomite the house of a nonunion miner was wrecked by an explosion of dynamite placed under the rear end of the building. The occupants were hurled from bed, but not injured. A reward of $500 has been offered for the arrest of the guilty parties, and as it is known that there are some of the best detectives in that region, no surprise will be caused by news of arrests in this case.
